

Congresswoman Fudge Amendments to Credit Cardholders' Bill of Rights (HR 627)

Amendment #5 of 5

5. Lenders should not be permitted to apply decisions taken due to activity by borrower which is unrelated to lender. For example, raising the APR on a customer in good standing based on that customer's payment history with another lender.