1 SEC. 3 ___. BROADENING EXPERIENCE WITHIN THE FOR-
2 EIGN SERVICE.

3 Not later than 180 days after the date of the enact-
4 ment of this Act, the Secretary of State, acting through 5 the Director of the Foreign Service, shall submit to the 6 appropriate congressional committees a detailed plan to 7 increase the career incentives provided to Foreign Service
8 officers to serve in bureaus and offices of the Department
9 of State not primarily focused on regional issues, including 10 the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor, the 11 Bureau of Oceans and International Environmental and

1 Scientific Affairs, and the Bureau of Population, Refugees
2 and Migration. In formulating such plan, the Secretary
3 shall consult with a broad range of active and retired For-4 eign Service officers and current and former officials of 5 the Department to elicit proposals on how to promote non-6 regional assignments, and shall consider—

7 (1) requiring all Foreign Service officers to 8 serve at least two years in an bureau or office of the 9 Department not primarily focused on regional issues
10 prior to joining the Senior Foreign Service; and

11 (2) changing the composition of Foreign Service
12 selection boards to increase the participation of De-
13 partment personnel with extensive experience in bu-
14 reaus and offices of the Department not primarily 15 focused on regional issues.
